

ABBA FOREVER

Quoted as "The Next Best to the original Abba" by Scandinavians leading music television channel NRK, this show has entertained audiences all over the world, from large outdoor festivals to private birthday parties. Wherever they perform they endeavour to get the audience on their feet and capture Abba as they were in their hey day...

Having performed many international & national theatre tours, concerts & open air Festivals, they have appeared 'Live' numerous times on live television and radio broadcasts.

"Successful tribute bands have to not only the look and sound exactly right, but also recreate the atmosphere of an original concert. It is easy to see why Abba Forever are regarded as one of the most authentic!"

Tours of Iceland, Austria, France, Romania, Denmark, Portugal, Cyprus, Norway and Northern and Southern Ireland have taken place, a tour in Russia included television interviews & their performance in Moscow was televised 'Live' and shown throughout the Baltic States. A performance in Hossegor, France featured on MTV and a recent festival in South Africa had them performing in front of 55,000 people headlining with some of their biggest stars.

More recently they were flown to the exotic location of Phuket in Thailand for several performances which generated lots of media coverage.

"To say that it succeeds in its aim is an understatement".
